-  Extra money for other expenses

Health+

Highlights

- Non-medical expense cover as a result of hospitalization in South Africa for 3 or more days.
- Paid as a cash lump sum between R 500 and R 5 000.
- From as little as R 23 per month.
- You can cover yourself, your spouse and dependent children under 21.
- Only 3 months waiting period.
- No limit on the number of claims per year, however the total claims may not exceed R 20 000 for a life insured in the policy year.
- Contributes to the Absolute Advantage Funeral Plan Cashback – even if you claimed.
- Stop paying premiums when you turn 65 – if you take this benefit out before you turn 55.

Important – this is not a medical scheme and the cover is not the same as that of a medical scheme. This policy or benefit is not a substitute for medical scheme membership.

Reasons to add the benefit

- The Health+ benefit is paid as a cash lump sum, you can spend the money as you choose.
- This money can replace loss of income due to hospitalization.
- It can be used to pay for additional transport, accommodation or childcare.
- You can claim multiple times.

Requirements

- Hold an Absolute Advantage Funeral Plan where you are the policyholder, premium-payer and main life insured.
- Must be a South African citizen.
